

GOLD FLORA

Gold Flora is a California-licensed premium cannabis company. Founded in 2016, Gold Flora is one of the few cannabis brands that is woman-owned and operated. Gold Flora started with luxury vape pens, and proved that with years of hard work and a shared passion for the plant, they could create superior products that truly make a difference in people's lives. Today, Gold Flora is a vertically-integrated company with an ever-expanding product line and a much larger mission. Gold Flora aims to redefine the legal cannabis industry and be California's most trusted source for an exceptionally enjoyable, consistent cannabis experience.
